

APPLICANT STATEMENT
PATRICK MAXFIELD

Personal Information

I am a registered Civil Engineer and I live in the City of Folsom.

Public Service:

Commissions and Boards

Project Planning Commissioner, District 4, Sacramento County from April 2005 thru Nov 2008

Folsom Planning Commissioner, 1989 to 2001 (13 years)

Folsom Historic District Commission 1989 to 2001.

Folsom's Traffic Safety Committee, 2001 to the present; currently Chairman.

Sacramento Regions Solid Waste Advisory Committee (2001 to present; currently Chairman)

Current member and past President of the Rotary Club of Folsom.

Current President of the Folsom Historic Society.

Current Board member of the Heritage Preservation League of Folsom (Past President)

Planning Philosophy

Every land-use project has three major parties: (1) the project proponent/developer; (2) the county planning staff; and (3) the public. Every planning commissioner has a responsibility to understand the point of view for each of these parties. Once the issues are understood, the Planning Commission's role is to adjudicate disagreement. Finally, each Commissioner has a duty to provide a meaningful explanation to all parties on how any decision was formulated.